GO 11- 1)

GENERAL ORDER

FILED
FEB 15 2011
Phil Lombardi, Clerk
U.S. DISTRICT COURT

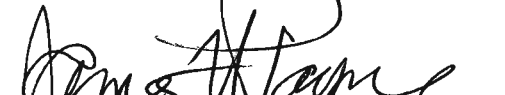

For new cases submitted to the Court by email in which a statute of limitations issue exists necessitating the case to be filed that day, the date the Court receives the party's new case email containing the initiating documents shall be deemed the filing date of the new case. The Court directs the party to notify the Clerk's office by telephone during regular business hours, and also by including this information in the new case email.

A party who fails to notify the Clerk's office and e-files the initiating documents after the statute of limitations has run must seek relief from the Court by written motion.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 15th day of February, 2011.
